Petersbourg, May 6, O. S.

THE 27th of last Month two Chineſe Ambaſſadours arrived here, to compliment the Czarina on her Acceſſion to the Throne. The next Day, which was the Anniverſary of her Majeſty's Coronation, they had their firſt Audience of her Majeſty, and bowed their Heads to the Ground before they preſented their Credentials, then made a ſhort Speech, which was anſwered by Count Oſterman, and then the Ambaſſadours bowed again three Times to the Ground; and the Audience being ended, they were conducted into another Room, being deſired to ſtay and dine at Court, as were likewiſe all the Foreign Miniſters. The Czarina dined in Publick with the Princeſs Elizabeth, and the young Dutcheſs of Mecklenbourg. All the Foreign and Ruſſian Miniſters, and the Ladies, ſtood till her Majeſty had dined; after which, the Foreign Miniſters were conducted into another Apartment to dine with the Ladies of the Court. The Court appeared very ſplendid on this Occaſion, for hardly any thing was ſeen but the fineſt Gold and Silver Stuffs that could be got in Europe, and Jewels in great Numbers. The Great Marſhal Count Levenwolde, who was a Knight of the Black Eagle, was made a Knight of St. Andrew, and his Brother General Count Levenwolde was declared Great Maſter of the Horſe. At Night there was a Ball at Court, and a fine Firework upon the River, with Illuminations, which continued for three Nights. All the Foreign Miniſters were invited the 4th Inſtant to come to Court in the Afternoon, to the Marriage of Major Biron, the Great Chamberlain's Brother, who was married to the late Prince Menzikoff's Daughter; after the Ceremony was over, there was a Ball and Supper at Court, as there was alſo the next Day.

Stockholm, May 17, O. S. This Court went into Mourning on Sunday laſt for Eight Days for the Elector of Mentz. The Queen goes to Carlsberg next Saturday for the Summer, by which Day Prince William of Heſſe is expected there, and his Swediſh Majeſty ſets out To-morrow to meet his Royal Highneſs.

Copenhagen, May 31, N. S. Prince William of Heſſe having ſtaid a Day or two at Friedensbourg, ſet out for Stockholm this Morning. The King of Denmark has made him a Preſent of a Sett of Coach Horſes. Count Seckendorff went from hence on the 29th, taking Friedensbourg in his Way.

Berlin, May 31, N. S. The Queen of Pruſſia came hither this Evening from Potzdam, and the King is expected To-morrow. The general Review, which is made in the Neighbourhood of this Town every Year, is fixed for the latter End of next Week, but will not conſiſt of ſo many Regiments as formerly. The Duke of Bevern is expected here in a few Days, as alſo the Prince and Princeſs of Bareith.

Hambourg, June 3, N. S. We have received Advices from Copenhagen, that a Treaty of Friendſhip, on the Foot of a mutual Guaranty, was ſigned there on the 26th of laſt Month, by Count Seckendorff Miniſter from the Emperour, M. Brackel Miniſter from the Czarina, and the Miniſters of the Daniſh Privy Council. Count Seckendorff arrived here laſt Night, and intends in a few Days to ſet out for Berlin.
